To back the unkind, and most Malevolent Aspects of November, Saturn and Jupiter are in Opposition at the Winter-Ingress, and so continue the three or four first Months of this year. From the first I conclude Plots and many secret Villanies to be busily Transacted in this, and the two succeeding Months in particular; If I hit right (as I believe I do) they deeply concern the City of London, there is a Spawn yet lurking in her Bowels, if possible, to lend her another life, but they may fitly be compared to a fierce dog without Teeth; always striving but can't bite, the ¶ 4 § Magnates una cum magistratu fastigii diminutionem, non sine mortis metu formidaturis minitabitur, threatens many Great Grandees with loss of Magistracy, Contempt of their Honour, not without fear of life also. It concerns the German Emperor in particular.

February's Observations, 1693.

The Beginning of this Month affords no aspects, but is influenc'd, partly by those of the last ; and partly by the Winter-Ingress ; of which I spoke partly the last month, and shall here add, that besides what I here observed, Sæurn and Mars in Conjunction, and Opposing Jupiter, do not only threaten Plots, and secret mischievous Embassay's to be busily banded about from one Court, and Caball to another, but also great Discoveries to be made, both of those and other Villanies now or near this time on foot ; as Robberies, Rapines, Murders and the like : and was the season proper I might conclude much fighting also, but instead of that, we may expect to hear much noise of Peace, but to very little purpose.

Jupiter now Direct, hasting to his third Opposition of Saturn from Gemini and Sagittari, will about this time enable us to discern, how far the labours of the two past months, have advanced toward the peace of Christendom, or rather indeed toward the contrary. The German Emperour discovers Grand Villanies, and such as he formerly much confided in, unworthy such favour: his enemies are malicious, but want strength; however its good to be wary, for the Square of Sol and Saturn, &c. This Month threatens mischiefs of several kinds, and particularly to one or more of Supreme Rank. The Season is stormy both by Sea and Land, and will load both City and Country with severe Floods both of Wet and other mischiefs: and in particular concerns London.

Mars the latter end of the last month, Squaring Jupiter, and the beginning of this Saturn lets variety of wits upon Improving their Talents of mischiefs. Perhaps my Old Friends the Dear-joys are exercising their old Faculties. Methinks Mars as now stated in Pisces, as exactly pictures out my dearly beloved friend ——— (and other Gentle men of that Society) as the best Linner in Europe could represent them, belching forth Malicious and Treasonable Villanies, and indeed to be plain, the many Conjunctions, preceeding the Winter Ingress, rather signified Plots and Secret mischiefs busily managed to Poyson the Ignorant, with hopes of reviving their Mortified Cause, then any material progress toward the Peace of Christendom. Tho' I believe there was something of that kind on foot.

Curious and pleasant weather till about the full moon, then expect lofty winds attended with showers, but much more pleasant and faire for the most part thence till the months end but then frequently showry and stormy.

Although the Season was not exceeding proper, nor seasonable, I dare not exclude either the four past months, or this from a considerable Destruction of Humane kind, being influenc't by so many Malignant Aspects as they were, and particularly those of Jupiter and Saturn In oppositione duorum superiorum strages sunt, saith Rigel, Lib. 2. Aph. 30. During the Influence of an Opposition of the two Superiors there happens Cruel slaughters of Men, Ruine of Families, &c. we are not only so Influenc't now, but also by a double Square of Mars with them also; and what is yet worse, the Opposition fell in Fiery and Airey Humane Signs, and therefore will the more violently dart their Poysonous beams on Humane kind. God of his Infinite mercies divert the Impending and deserved Judgments.

June's Observations, 1693,

Although Jupiter is a Fortune by Nature ; yet being in his Detriment, and so long Retrograde, and so often (as he has lately been there) confronted by the Malevolent Rays of the two Infortunes ; makes him rather an Enemy then a Friend to Places and Persons subject to the Sign, where he is, and has so long been : such are the Countries and Cities of Flanders, Brabant, Egypt, Sardinia, Armenia, London, Turney, Vercelles, Lovane, Bruges, &c. and threatens each of them more or less, with Scarcity and Dearth, and a more then usual Mortality ; and Removealls of several kinds. Many deservedly will reap the Fruits of their Plots, and sinister unjust Labours : Were I worthy I would the lofty Eagle to be cautious of a Fatal Dose.

July's Observations, 1693,

Jupiter Changing his Sign, and the Sun Eclipsed on the Cusp of the M. C. the last month ; shews not only many Debates, and Quarrels about Honour and Preferment, and among Gown-men, and Persons of Superior Quality : but the Removal of many from their Honour, Offices and Preferments. I can't conclude it to be a Final Dissolution, but rather only to make Room for others, whether for better or worse I will not undertake to determine, but leave it to the Curious Observators. I really judge many Consultations, to be near this time on foot, for Determinations of Grand Controversies, and will so far prosper as to make some Men believe it may be effected.

Notwithstanding the Friendly Endeavours of the last month, things now revolve into another form : Mars, Soldier like, with sword in hand, stept to the place of Jupiter at the great Opposition; there opposes Leadon heel'd Chronus, Stationary in Saguary; and swears his part of the Play, is not over yet, he must and will have t'other turn let what will attend it : And to make his words good by Deeds, goes to downright blows; and like a mad man makes all to flie before him, till he exalts himself to the utmost pinnacle of his desired Ambition, let no degree conceive its self safe; for all are now concerned in the Tragedy, we certainly shall near this time be acquainted with some considerable Revolution.

Besides the Fatal Opposition of Saturn and Mars the last of July, the last month was attended with no less then five Squares made by Saturn and Mars to the Inferiours ; Mercury, Venus, and the Sun, and this month two more, by Mars and Jupiter ; the one of Mars and Mercury at the Full Moon preceeding the Autumnal Ingress, from the Cardinal Signs, Cancer and Libra ; the other from the same Signs at the time of the Ingress. In General they signify much Dissatisfaction, Grumbling, Murmuring and Repining among most sorts of people ; but chiefly the Vulgar and middle kind yea, some of Superior Rank also shares in the business ; perhaps are accused and degraded also ; much Scribbling and Contention, if not blows also now are on foot, and damages by Storms, &c.

I was going to say Perjurys and Forgeries too: and since 'tis out let it pass; it looks very like Teagmish honesty Restor'd; that is now they dare no longer use force, stoutly to swear, rather than want, and yet the Curse of Heaven pursues them, both for past and present Villanies.  December's Observations 1693.

December is ushered in by a Conjunction of Sol and Saturn, and an Opposition of Mars and Venus; and soon after back't, with an Opposition of Jupiter and Mercury: which I intreat may be well observed by those Weather-wise-Wittisims (that condemn all things but the Nonsense of their own muddy Nodles) and would persuade the World, that it is Impossible by Astrology to foretell the Weather. I write this in August 1692 for December 1693, and if it proves not more then usually (at the season) Intemperate, and Foul, let them ever hereafter, in derision both to Astrology and me, still deny we can Foretell the Weather; but if I now hit right, let them henceforth forbear their Nonsense, and confess that God made nothing in vain.

Astrological Observations, for the year, 1693.

GIve me leave to tell you that I inferr, that all, but especially Superior Conjunctions always have respect to Meetings, Consultations and Caballs, good or bad, according to the nature of the Significators; and as they proceed towards the Opposition, so they shew the effects of such Meetings, &c. to increase till the Significators come to their Opposition, then to be in their full state; thence forward to decrease decrease till they arrive at a period. And hence I conclude that Saturn and Jupiter, making no less then 3 Oppositions between June 92, and April 93, will about this time confirm, that the Stars do influence Elementary bodies, and shew the growth, state and decay of things : and that the Tyranical Usurpations (and particularly of France) which have under that Coujunction, for some years past, exalted themselves in Christendom, will now under these Oppositions appear in their own Colours, and receive their fatal blow, and henceforward by degrees dwindle away to nothing. And I dare ingage the late King James, and his brother Lewis of France, will this very year confirm it; for tho' the one has already largely tasted the wofull effects of his mistakes, yet he must now be contented to proceed a little further; and the other to follow something like his steps. It seems something like another Abdication, and yet perhaps may prove a forced Resignation doubled.

THe Winter Ingress, taken by our English Ephemeris is Decemb. 10th. 50 m. past 6. in the Evening 1692. And then all the Planets are under the

THe Vernal Ingress this year 1693, begins at Dublin March 9th. 6 m. after Sun-set, and then, as at the winter Ingress all the Planets except Jupiter and the Moon, are under the Earth, and Jupiter in the 9th. hasting to an Opposition of Saturne, fills the world with a great noise, about Religious concerns, and about Restoring, Reforming, setting or new modelling Laws or matters relating thereunto. I almost believe it will

It's something odd that Monsieur who lately pretended to lend Laws and Religion to others should now be forced to borrow from his Neighbours ; and yet there is now a considerable progress of that kind now made: for tho' sturdy Oppositions may be made against it; Jupiter in the 9th, will certainly restore the oppressed Protestants (and those of France in particular) to their

And notwithstanding the frequent Judgments, that constantly attend them ; and the many Indulgences they have received ; they cannot be Intreated to Reclaim, nor Believe till the evil Approach their Door. I am persuaded, tho' an Angel should come from Heaven it could not dissuade some of them from wonted evils. Some of the old leaven yet remains among them, and they are, if opportunity offered, as ready as ever, to Act their old Play, but their friend Lewis is now forced to sail them, and his better friends also ; and to embrace the cold fate, the heavens has designed him.

Mercury Lord of the Nineth, Disposer of Jupiter, and in a Watry Sign applying to a square of Saturn, signifies loss of Ground to some sorts of Clergy-men, Fraud and Deceit among Clerks and Penmen, Treacherous Ambassadors and messages to be busily handed about, from one place and Nation to another : to Interrupt and hinder the Religious Councils and Designs now on foot in Europe ; Treachery in Fleets, Storms, Wrecks and Destruction of Shipping. I beseech God to preserve those of Great Brittain and Ireland, from the effects of such Configurations, and her Dominions from all Pestilential Evils. The Season threatens much Sickneſs among Humane kind, and a considerable mortality among Cattle, especially Cows, Oxen and Horses.

Several Overtures are this year made for Peace, and will advance considerably towards it, but as yet fall short of perfection, but for the present frustrated by some new Wheel which till now was not brought motion. It proceeds from the North, I had almost said from Swedland. That King is a little Huffyish, yet not over fond of Fighting; however loves Gold dearly. The Turkish Sailes wants Wind, and those of Swedland moves slowly. The rest of the Confederates march on briskly, and seem intent upon some new Enterprize. Holland, and Scotland are gloriously Blessed: and may England ever be happy.
